

Beijing

7 November 2006

Peter Mandelson warmly welcomes Vietnam's accession to the WTO

"I warmly welcome the accession of Vietnam to the WTO which must be seen as a milestone in its economic development and its integration into the global economy.

WTO Membership will give Vietnam able access to global markets and help attract new trade and new investment to what is one of Asia's most dynamic and fast growing economies".